Curriculum Vitae

Curriculum Vitae - Denis Marek Leipzig, Germany - denis.marek@example.org

Work history Electrician / installation technician, Elektro Nova GmbH, Leipzig (2017 - present): installation of building services systems in residential new-build; laying supply lines and distribution boards; conduit and cable routing in walls, floors and shafts; reading installation plans and building drawings; customer-facing service calls and handover on occupied sites; two-person crew routine.

Qualification Vocational training as electronics technician for energy and building services (apprenticeship, 2014 - 2017), journeyman certificate. Safety training (annual, employer).

Skills Building services installation, supply line installation, installation plan reading, power and system tools, customer service, team work, work safety.

Languages and other German (native), English (good). Driving licence class B (company van routine). Note: open to retraining into sanitary and heating installation; plumber friends describe me as a quick learner.